

On October 31, 1517, Luther wrote a lengthy letter to his bishop, Albrecht von Brandenburg, protesting against indulgences, sums of money to buy off sins. The letter became known as the 95 Theses, which, according to tradition, he also nailed to the church door mid-November of that year. Today we 'nail' our 95 theses on the door. An indictment of the pseudo-science with which the media terrorizes us. But above all a list of values and norms that urgently need to be reinstated.
